

Today's News - May 29, 2003

Sri Lanka and Philadelphia (and the rest of us) lose visionaries. – Keeping to the vision/plan is tough going at Ground Zero. – "Audacious" design is just right for housing complex in San Francisco. – Sydney is running out of space. – Waterfront dreams in New York and Detroit. – Architecture students take a project to heart. – More on the changing face of prefab. – Vienna suburbs: testing grounds for inventive architecture. – Architecture that reflects research. – The sky's the limit at Royal Academy show. – We wish there was a picture (and architect named) of "a postmodern pagoda crossed with a stunted Seattle space needle."
